Attractive Financial Incentives

How the Financial Incentives Work

By leveraging the buying power of the OMNIA Partners organization, OMNIA Partners members participating in the American Express-OMNIA Partners program may be eligible to receive our pre-negotiated base incentive rates determined by pooling members' spending.

Encourage your fellow members to apply for the American Express-OMNIA Partners program and to spend! By doing so, their spending can contribute towards the program's next aggregate incentive tier and help increase your financial incentive.

Please connect with an American Express representative to learn the program incentive tiers.

How the Early Payment Incentive Works

Take advantage of an increased financial incentive by paying your full balance early.

Earn additional basis points (bps) above your base financial amount when your payment is received within less than seven days after your statement closing days for Corporate Card and 14 days for B2B products (Corporate Purchasing Card, vPayment and Buyer Initiated Payments).

Financial incentives are paid to members on a quarterly basis.

Financial Incentive calculations vary. Contact an American Express representative for more information.

Billing Cycle Day 7: No Early Payment Bonus paid; Billing Cycle Days 8 through 29: Base Incentive Reduced by 2 bps per day; Billing Cycle Day 30+: No Base Incentive paid. Billing Cycle Day 14: No Early Payment Bonus paid; Billing Cycle Day 14+: No Base Incentive paid.

How the American Express product suite may improve your processes:

- Reduce tedious manual Accounts Payables processes with electronic payments and automated expense reporting with a Corporate Card.
- Improve cash flow management and reduce the risk of payment errors with vPayment.
- Drive efficiency and savings by reducing paper checks and transitioning to electronic payments with Buyer Initiated Payments.
