Kimball's Newest Product Collection has Industrial Edge

JASPER, IN – Kimball, a leading designer and manufacturer of high quality products and solutions in the furniture industry announces the launch of its newest collection, fiXt. fiXt encourages creativity and meeting places where designers and clients can roll up their sleeves and collaborate. fiXt offers a polished urban aesthetic that stands alone to make a statement in a space or defines specialty meeting and work areas within a workplace environment. The fiXt product offering spans modern design with sturdy metal trusses that support a multitude of tabletop materials. Occasional tables, worktables, bookcases, stools and benches are all part of the fiXt collection and are available in a range of sizes and heights. Mobility options make reconfigurability of any space effortless to support flexible landscapes.

Like many of Kimball's furniture solutions, fiXt is collection of furniture pieces that help any brand tell its own unique story.
