Succeed from anywhere.

Help your employees maximize productivity while working from home.

Many organizations are discovering that their workforces are just as productive — or even more so — when working remote. As a result, some companies may be asking employees to continue to work from home for an extended period of time — and even permanently. Office Depot® can help your employees maintain productivity from any location, so you can enjoy peace of mind.

FIND SOLUTIONS FOR REMOTE EMPLOYEES — ALL FROM ONE SOURCE.

TECHNOLOGY

Although your employees may not be working on-site, they're really just a click away. Help promote efficiency and productivity with resources for videoconferencing and printing.

NETWORK SECURITY & PRODUCTIVITY

Reliable security software and network connections can help your team members communicate with each other without digital disruptions.

FURNITURE

Dedicated home office environments that replicate in-office workspaces can help boost creativity and reduce the feeling of isolation. Office Depot has furniture solutions to help your employees maximize their home office spaces while keeping productive in ergonomic comfort. Active workplace furniture can also encourage healthier habits.

CLEANING & PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT (PPE)

Maintaining a cleaner environment doesn't have to be reserved for the office. Office Depot has wipes, disinfectant sprays, hand sanitizer and more to help employees reduce the spread of germs wherever they work.
