

JourneyEd.com, Inc. is the leading multi-channel technology marketer and reseller to the K-12 and post-secondary academic markets, which includes millions of students, faculty, staff, educational institutions and districts nationwide.

Our mission to advance education through technology is accomplished by combining an array of high quality partner relationships and an experienced team of employees to deliver unique solutions.

Students with access to the best academic tools have the advantage. That's why we offer students, educators and other members of the educational community software and related technology items at significantly discounted prices.

“ Our goal is to connect students, educators and schools nationwide with world-class technology. ”