For OMNIA Partners Participants

Helping Government and Education

The University of California solicited proposals for a Lead Agency Marketing Partnership and signed an agreement with OMNIA Partners, making this strategic sourcing agreement the first of its kind.

Through this exciting partnership, UC executes competitive solicitations, awarding best-in-class suppliers with national agreements tailored to meet the needs of participating agencies and schools.

Together, UC and OMNIA Partners offer flexible programs, allowing members to meet a variety of supply chain needs, while also providing increased options for procurement.
