Neat unleashes new capabilities for higher education.

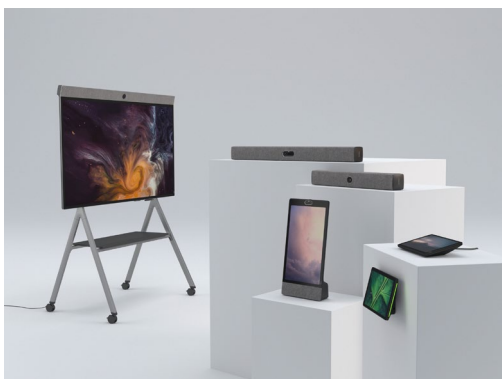

There's no doubt that hybrid learning is here to stay. The right video technology creates many new methods of curriculum delivery. But forward-thinking institutions are also leveraging video outside the classroom as a powerful administrative tool.

- Use elegantly designed all-in-one Neat devices for:
  - Professional development delivery
  - Staff and board meetings
  - Special education compliance
  - Campus emergency communications
  - Student success and mental wellness
- Neat enables natural engagement between staff and students, allowing freedom of movement and organic conversation
- AI-powered camera makes each lecture a production, as the camera instinctively follows your professors as they move about the classroom creating a more engaging experience for all
- Neat addresses a wide range of campus spaces and needs
- Simple to install, set up, use and manage

Funding resources for higher education.
