

Don't let germs become the class pet

Arming your school with the supplies they need to help keep a clean environment is an important role in the prevention of cold and flu viruses among kids and staff. Stopping the spread of germs is the first line of defense to help keep classrooms healthy every day.

Kills 99.9% of bacteria¹

Staph[§], Salmonella^{‡‡}

Removes commor

1.29 LB (587 g

Promote washing or sanitizing hands often.

Keep surfaces clean by regularly disinfecting hard, nonporous surfaces.

Encourage kids to cough or sneeze into elbow or tissue.

Avoid touching your eyes, nose and mouth. Germs spread his way.¹