

Keep the Focus on Well-Being This Winter

With more gatherings happening indoors in the winter, germ exposure is increasingly likely. Here's how to help stay well and have more peace of mind this winter season.

HAND HYGIENE

More than 80% of all illnesses are transmitted by germs on hands.¹ Stock up on hand sanitizer and soap now so you're prepared.

SURFACE PRODUCTS

Kill 99.9% of germs on surfaces (including cold & flu) with powerful surface sanitizer and disinfectant sprays or wipes.

PROPER PLACEMENT

Placing hand hygiene and surface products in ideal locations resulted in a 60% reduction of germs on surfaces in facilities.²
