

Diverse Portfolio, Quality, and Speed

Henry Schein is more than your University Health distributor preparing Students, and Faculty, for success—we are your support team.

A DIVERSE PORTFOLIO that delivers quality and affordable supplies

Henry Schein partners with market leading companies to deliver quality, affordable medical solutions to include; Student Health Centers, Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Sports Medicine, Athletic Training, Lab, and Pharmacy.

Henry Schein partners with over 3,000 suppliers in the health care industry. In order to be a qualified partner, each supplier has to go through a rigorous Vendor Approval Process and adhere to strictly enforced regulating guidelines during their tenure as a Henry Schein partner.

Our primary objective in sourcing partners is to maintain control and ensure the highest quality products are distributed through our channels. Henry Schein's quality management systems are aligned to FDA compliant practices ensuring proper monitoring for storage, transportation, and all necessary controls.

Customer Support and High Touch Sales Model

We have a network of specialists to streamline and support your unique needs.

Competitive Pricing

As one of the largest distributors servicing the University space, Henry Schein leverages its relationships with over 3,000 manufacturer partners, competitively bid-purchasing cooperatives and GPOs (when applicable) in an effort to drive down costs and keep you compliant.

QUALITY MANAGEMENT

Henry Schein has put in place various inspections/checkpoints throughout the process:

Receiving Inspection

Products received are not released to storage until they have been inspected.

Final Inspection

Products ready to be shipped are randomly verified to ensure accuracy.

In-Process Inspection

At defined stages of the process, the product is sampled and inspected.

Inspection Records

Records are established and maintained to provide evidence that the product has been accurately received.

Global Logistics Intelligence Henry Schein is the #1 healthcare partner of global logistics leader UPS. Through this partnership, we benefit from global logistics innovation, technology, and substantial reach in even the most remote areas.
