

PROMOTION

Hyland is currently running a competitive replacement program promotion in conjunction with the launch of our new capture software offering, Hyland Intelligent Document Processing (IDP). For a limited time, customers and prospects who currently own a competitor's capture solution are eligible to receive promotional pricing when switching to the Hyland IDP solution. Hyland will meet or beat a competitor's price for like for like functionality and volume.

To take advantage of this promotion, customers should reach out to governmentcontracts@hyland.com.
