“Mackin helped me squeeze every dime out of my grant. Instead of class sets of thirty, I was able to order sets of thirty-six that will last due to the reinforced covers I was able to add.”

— Sarah S., Houston, TX

“Mackin helped me to create a list of high-interest and relevant titles for my classroom library that creates READERS!”

— Amy T.

Custom Made For You

Classroom Libraries

Experts agree: Classrooms should have 7-10 books per student and should grow every year. Our professionals work with you to pinpoint the exact needs of your students. We then create customized, intentional book collections representative of your student population, designed to not only get your students excited about reading, but to help them learn as they read. Whether you need a one-stop shop for an existing list of classroom library titles recommended by your curriculum program, or you require custom recommendations, we have the supplemental resources, selection, and expertise that you need. Our custom classroom library collections include:

- Read-alouds
- High-interest materials
- Mentor texts
- Informational texts
- Diverse representation
- Leveled readers
- Content aligned to curriculum
- Digital content
- Multilingual options
- Authentic texts

Learning Happens Beyond the Classroom

Summer / Take-Home Reading

Summertime, anytime! Packs of books can be customized to meet the unique needs of your literacy project. As partners, we customize bags with:

- Titles hand-selected to meet your population's reading levels and interest areas, as well as your budget
- Identical or unique combinations of books across bags
- Customizable logo on the front of the bag
- Letters to parents or other collateral you'd like in each bag
