Re: OMNIA Partners City of Tamarac Contract #19-12R dated October 14, 2019, between the City of Tamarac (the “City”) and Office Depot, LLC (“Office Depot”) (the “Agreement”)

Dear Mr. Glatz:

On May 5, 2021, the Board of Directors of Office Depot announced that The ODP Corporation will separate into two independent, publicly traded companies, each with a unique and highly focused strategy and investment profile. We recently announced a delay in the separation as our Board of Directors evaluates a potential sale of the company’s consumer business – Office Depot and OfficeMax retail stores and OfficeDepot.com. Regardless of whether the transaction results in a sale or a separation, we are moving forward with the realignment of the Business Solutions Division as an independent company under the ODP Umbrella, and the rebranding as ODP Business Solutions. With this rebranding, we are focusing our strategy fully on B2B customers like the City, allowing us to get more closely aligned with the City’s business needs and initiatives.

Effective May 1, 2022, Office Depot will assign all of its right, title, and interest under the Agreement to its affiliate, ODP Business Solutions, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“ODP BSD”), and ODP BSD will assume all obligations under the Agreement.

Pursuant to terms of the Agreement, we hereby request the City’s consent to the above-referenced transfer of the Agreement from Office Depot to ODP BSD. Please indicate the City’s consent by having an individual authorized to sign on behalf of the City sign where indicated on the attached Amendment 1 and return a copy to our attention via email.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to me at brian.abromovage@officedepot.com or 570-613-0461.

Sincerely,

Brian Abromovage

Brian Abromovage, Vice President, Business Solutions Division Office Depot, LLC.
