Notes: Vendor may include other notes regarding the contract update here: (attach another page if necessary). WillScot Mobile Mini has begun to evaluate pricing of new modular and storage equipment, starting with New Sales.

With the spike this year in lumber and steel pricing, our manufacturing costs for new buildings is at an all time high currently.

Making it such that our pricing needs to be re-evaluated. WillScot Mobile Mini is starting with the New Sales, since most volatile and will be provide any/all our updates to pricing for the end of the year. However, the reason for the sense of urgency with specific new sales for specific units is due to the recent Hurricane. Members are wanting to purchase more units since their current building has been destroyed or compromised, and renting is not an option since they want indefinitely. For now, we would like to request to change the pricing for a few units with the understanding that we will be send any/all changes for the start of 2023.

For the Verbiage change, we would like to add to our discounted pricing pricing to clarify pricing. For all prices, that is box/Shell only. Modifications made to a unit is not included.
